MEDICINAL In Girlhood

There is a great need of motherly watchfulness and care. A growing girl needs all her strength, and if she is nervous and melancholy, and loses appetite there is surely something wrong. This is especially true as the young girl approaches the period of change when the womanly function is established. Timely care and proper treatment at this period may save much after suffering.

The best medicine for young girls is Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It cures nervousness, dizziness, and melancholy, and gives the body robust health. There is no alcohol in "Favorite Prescription" and it is entirely free from opium, cocaine, and all other narcotics.

"My daughter was troubled with dizziness and nervousness and was very nervous for five years," writes Mrs. M. Carter, of 1545 4th Street, N. W., Washington, D. C. "I tried several doctors but they gave her no relief. At times she would eat nothing, had green and purple circles under her eyes, and was melancholy. A woman friend of mine told me to try your 'Favorite Prescription' and 'Pleasant Pellets' which I did. After taking one bottle of each she began to improve and is still improving. People said she looked as though she were going into a decline, she is twelve years old. There are no circles under her eyes now and she is healthy and robust, eats as much as any child, and is growing faster every day."

Dr. Pierce's Pellets regulate the bowels.

Call and have a set with the above improvements. Old loose and ill-fitting plates corrected in fit, durability and comfort perfectly true to nature.

FIGHTS ON THE STUMP.

The little town of Gaffney, Cherokee county, S. C., seems to be a natural fighting ground for candidates. It was there fifteen months ago that after a heated debate the dramatic incident between Senators Tillman and McLaurin occurred, which terminated in their sending their resignations to the governor, and it was at Gaffney three weeks ago that Editor Decamp faced James H. Tillman, candidate for governor, and told him he was a liar, a drunkard, a blackguard, and a gambler. Yesterday the candidates for the United States Senate were speaking at Gaffney. Among them were Congressman Latimer and former Congressman John J. Hemphill. All the candidates had spoken except Latimer. It was near dinner time and the crowd had dispersed to gather in the afternoon to hear candidates for Congress. Latimer asked to speak in the afternoon. Latimer called to the crowd that he wished them to hear him repel the attacks of five lawyers who had been jumping on him. Mr. Hemphill protested against the assertion, and added that Latimer should not infringe on the time of Congressional candidates. Latimer declared Hemphill cared nothing for the Congressmen. "You know that is false," cried Hemphill. Both are powerful men and were facing each other. Latimer landed a terrible blow on Hemphill's face. Hemphill struck out, but was pulled back from behind. He then swung an umbrella over Latimer's head. The crowd rushed between the furious men. Latimer was pinioned and Hemphill dragged to the floor. The incident is supposed to be closed.

A personal collision between the rival candidates for governor of Arkansas was averted Wednesday night at Shoam Springs by the interference of City Marshall Hill, though he did not succeed in preventing fist fights among friends of the candidates. Governor Davis, in his speech, defended his record and denounced the affidavits held by H. H. Myers, the republican nominee, as false. These affidavits charged Governor Davis with having been drunk on a passenger train, and with having given whisky to negroes. The candidates then engaged in heated personalities, and each denounced the other as a coward. Governor Davis rushed toward Myers, who met his advance half way, and Marshall Hill jumped between the angry men. Over a hundred men rushed to the speakers' stand. It looked as though bloodshed would occur, but finally the disturbance was quelled and the speakers concluded their remarks, each being more temperate in his use of words.

HUSBAND AND WIFE KILLED.

Charles J. Allen and his wife were fatally shot at their home in the fashionable section of Tampa, Fla., yesterday by Manuel Chavez, one of the wealthiest and most prominent young members of the Cuban colony in that place. Allen died in the aid room of the hospital. His wife is in a critical condition. Mrs. Allen's death is only a question of time. Many conflicting accounts of the tragedy are current, but the one generally believed is that Allen and Chavez in an unexpected fight found Chavez in his home, and that he assaulted Chavez, striking him a terrific blow in the mouth. Chavez then drew a pistol and began to fire. One bullet struck Allen in the left side, another in the mouth, and the third in the abdomen, after passing through the body of Mrs. Allen, who had rushed between the men in an effort to separate them. The shooting of Mrs. Allen is believed to have been entirely unintentional. Immediately after the shooting Chavez rushed from the house back toward the water, in his buggy that was standing at the back gate. An effort was made to get him released last night. His father's firm, one of the largest manufacturers of cigars in Tampa, offered to put up a $100,000 cash bond, but as the charge is murder Chavez's father refused it. Prominent attorneys, including Congressman Sparkman, have been employed by the defense.

KING COMPLETELY RESTORED.—The

British Medical Journal makes the announcement that it is authorized to say there is no truth whatever in the recent rumors that King Edward will undergo a second operation. The British Medical Journal declares that the King's recovery is complete, and that his general health is better than for a long time past. King Edward and Queen Alexandra left London for Cowes yesterday afternoon. They drove in semi-state to the railway station, escorted by the Life Guards, through streets thickly crowded with cheering people. The King and Queen arrived at Portsmouth at 4:30 p. m., and went on board the Victoria and Albert, which sailed at once for Cowes. The warships in Portsmouth harbor dressed ship and fired the royal salute when the King went on board his yacht.

Chief Justice Fuller, of the Supreme Court of the United States, is reported to be critically ill at his summer home, in Maine.

A Cure for Cholera Infantum.

"Last May," says Mrs. Curtis Baker, of Bookwalter, Ohio, "an infant child of our neighbor was suffering from cholera infantum. The doctor had given up all hopes of recovery. I took a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy to the house, telling them I felt sure it would do good if used according to directions. In two days the time the child had fully recovered and is now (nearly a year since) a vigorous, healthy girl. I have recommended this Remedy frequently and have never known it to fail in any single instance." For sale by Richard Gibson, Druggist.

His Sight Threatened.

"While picking up some weed or plant," says W. H. Dibble, of Sioux City, Ia. "He rubbed the poison off his hands into his eyes and for a while we were afraid he would lose his sight. Finally a neighbor recommended DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. The first application helped him and in a few days he was well as ever." For skin diseases, cuts, burns, scalds, wounds, insect bites, DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve is sure cure. Relieve piles at once. Beware of Counterfeits. For sale by E. S. Leadbetter & Sons.

CIGARS AND TOBACCO.

We Have

Manufactured

Cigars since 1884 but at no time have we ever made a cigar to equal the "Captain Billy" which is made for men of taste, and equal to many 10c cigars on the market.

The "Captain Billy" is made of the finest imported and domestic tobacco grown, being strictly hand made by experienced union workmen. The stock is old and well seasoned, being kept in our warehouse until well aged before it is manufactured into cigars.

The "Captain Billy" cigars are manufactured in two shapes—Perfecto and No. 1—so you can take your choice. When the "Captain Billy" cigars are packed in Spanish cedar boxes and then put in an airtight room so they will gradually dry without losing their Havana aroma, before being offered to the trade. If you anticipate taking a trip to the shore it would be well for you to order the "Captain Billy" to carry with you as you can find no cigar to equal them. "Captain Billy," a 10c cigar for 5c.
